

Be it resolved that on December 6, 2012, The Advisory Board of the Emma S. Barrientos Mexican American Cultural Center (MACC) approved the following action items for recommendation to Austin City Council:

1. Formally transfer Rainey Street parcel to Parks and Recreation Department for incorporation into the Emma S. Barrientos Mexican American Cultural Center Master Plan in perpetuity,
2. Rescind the specific recommendation from the previous August 1, 2012 Advisory Board Resolution recommending “Parking Alternative Option 1D as a temporary parking area to accommodate the Latino Arts Incubator Project and future programming needs, consisting of curb and gutter Asphalt Surface directly adjacent of the main entrance to the ESB MACC and locally known as the 64 Rainey Street parcel for a net gain of 34 additional spaces for an estimated cost of $92,500 ($2,721/space),”
3. Recommend the Architect of Record revisit the Master Plan to incorporate the parcel into Phase 2 of the ESB MACC.
4. Establish a flexible, multi-use and landscaped public art space for mission related activities and events to include but not limited to open air classes, community engagement, gardens, outdoor gallery space and many of the suggestions and ideas put forward by the community meetings as appropriate.
5. Construct a historical outdoor exhibit and marker dedicated to the cultural history of the Rainey Street neighborhood
